

NOW AVAILABLE FROM
Rita Nakashima Brock & Rebecca Ann Parker

SAVING PARADISE

How Christianity Traded Love of This World for Crucifixion and Empire

Saving Paradise offers a fascinating new lens on the history of Christianity, from its first centuries to the present day, and asks how its early vision of beauty in this world and this life evolved into one of torture.

“Where does new hope come from? Often from remembering what has been lost. As a work of Christian historical theology, this is one of the most important books of the current generation . . . The prose here is sparkling. The research is thorough and well-documented. The thesis is challenging . . . [Brock and Parker] give us hope . . . for a once dominant form of Christian thought and practice that we desperately need to recover today.”

—REVEREND JOHN A. BUEHRENS, minister of the First Parish Church in Needham, MA, and author of Understanding the Bible and A Chosen Faith

“Every Christian theologian and preacher should read this book and be profoundly challenged.”

—PROFESSOR JAMES H. CONE, author of Malcolm & Martin & America

“Saving Paradise challenges us to recover an ancient world view that is life transforming and earth affirming. It reminds us of a biblical perspective that does not reserve paradise for the dead but invites the living to find grace, justice, peace and compassion—here and now—amid the jangling discord of violence and war. It may mark the beginning of a paradigm shift in contemporary Christian understanding and interfaith dialogue.”

—REVEREND JAMES A. FORBES, JR., president and founder of the Healing of the Nations Foundation, senior minister emeritus of the Riverside Church of New York City

“Only rarely is a single book an event. This book is such a rarity.” —DANIEL C. MAGUIRE, author of A Moral Creed for All Christians

For more information, a gallery, and events, visit www.savingparadise.net.

photo: Yen Li Studios

RITA NAKASHIMA BROCK and REBECCA ANN PARKER are coauthors of Proverbs of Ashes: Violence, Redemptive Suffering, and the Search for What Saves Us (Beacon / 6797-0 / $18.00 pb). Parker is president and professor of theology at Starr King School for the Ministry. Brock is director of Faith Voices for the Common Good and a minister in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). The authors live in Oakland, California.

$34.95 cl / 576 pages

Unitarian Universalism's Voice for Good in the World

BEACON PRESS • WWW.BEACON.ORG • BLOG: WWW.BEACONBROADSIDE.COM