UUA Bookstore Holiday Gift Guide

So Help Me God
Forrest Church
Church describes our first great culture war—a tumultuous yet nearly forgotten conflict that raged from George Washington's presidency to James Monroe's. Would we be a nation under God, or with liberty for all? (Harcourt) Item 5556 • $28

What on Earth Have I Done?
Robert Fulghum
An armchair tour of everyday life as seen by one of America's great essayists, a man who has two feet planted firmly on the earth, one eye on the heavens and, at times, a tongue planted firmly in his cheek. (St. Martin's Press) Item 5148 • $22.95

The Most Famous Man in America
The Biography of Henry Ward Beecher
Debby Applegate
Beecher found fame by shedding fire-and-brimstone theology and preaching instead a gospel of unconditional love. Winner of the Frederick G. Melcher Award for 2006. (Random House) Item 4173 • $16.95

A Short History of Myth
Karen Armstrong
Armstrong's insightful and eloquent book serves as a brilliant and thought-provoking introduction to myth—and why we dismiss it only at our peril. (Canongate) Item 6510 • $12

A Little History of the World
E.H. Gombrich
In forty concise chapters, Gombrich tells the story of humanity from the stone age to the atomic bomb. The product of a generous and humane sensibility, this timeless account makes intelligible the full span of human history. (Yale University Press) Item 3864 • $25

Why Buffalo Dance
Susan Chernak McElroy
Animal and wilderness meditations through the seasons. (New World Library) Item 5125 • $16
