

Attention Religious Educators

Did you know?

The Church of the Larger Fellowship is a congregation by mail and cyberspace for all kinds of people—for example:

- Geographically isolated Unitarian Universalists
- Active members of local congregations who want even more
- Religious professionals who want a church home of their own
- Prisoners
- Folks who can't get out
- Unitarian Universalists who live outside the United States
- Religious Educators, like you!

Valuable CLF Religious Education resources include:

- Quest, a monthly worship publication of sermons and other material
- RE Express Plus-resources, plans, projects to build your RE programs
- A variety of online Religious Education curriculum
- Religious Education consultation
- A loan library including books, sermons, videotapes and more
- Pastoral care
- E-mail lists and cyber communities that focus on sharing ideas

Let us help you strengthen your Religious Education programs

Tell your religious leaders and congregation about the CLF
That's how we spread the word.

Become a CLF member to access online community and a wealth of Religious Education resources, or subscribe to RE Express Plus
