CLiF Notes: A Curriculum for Families and Small Groups

With a session for each week including opening and closing words, centering, activities, discussion topics and more, this year CLiF Notes is focused on the "sources of our living tradition." Each month contains a session for: UU Identity, Going to the Sources, Stories of Faith, and Worship. While designed for smaller programs with multi-age groups, CLiF Notes can be adapted for use in age-graded classrooms; used by churches which have two Sunday services, with a smaller program at one of the service times; or for programs which incorporate monthly worship for children of all ages.

RE Index of Resources

This searchable index will take you to hundreds of CLF religious education resources available on the Web. Search by age, topic or more to find curriculum ideas, Web links, craft ideas, columns from Quest and much more.

KidTalk Web page for kids

With links to activities and information about holidays around the world, as well as featured people from UU history, social justice projects, spiritual practices, ways to practice our principles and a forum for kids to ask questions on religious topics, each month KidTalk provides a way for kids to connect to UUism, and for parents and religious educators to glean great ideas for religious education.

REsources for Living

Each month CLF minister for lifespan learning, the Rev. Dr. Lynn Ungar, writes a column inviting kids (and grown-ups) to reflect on matters from how to celebrate holidays to what it means to be a Unitarian Universalist.
