Virginia Countryside & UU History Mystery Tour—October 9-11, 2009

Enjoy a beautiful fall weekend in the historic Virginia and West Virginia countryside and learn about a piece of little known UU History in the process. Members of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Loudoun (UUCL) will guide you through your tour of historic villages and towns in Loudoun County Virginia.

The tour also includes a day trip to beautiful Harper's Ferry, West Virginia to mark the 150th Anniversary of the John Brown raid. Uncover the truth about 3 UU's who abandoned their pacifist roots to support this historic raid.

A special children's program is offered by our Religious Education Director (for ages 10-17 – see registration form for cost).

You'll also:

- Stay in a hotel with a rich history
- Attend a coffeehouse concert at our historic chapel
- Learn about UUCL's chapel which was built by freed slaves
- Visit Oatlands plantation and enjoy lunch in the carriage house
- Choose from three activities on Sunday afternoon
 1. Hike through a historic Civil War battlefield
 2. Tour and tasting at one of Loudoun's renowned wineries
 3. Enjoy an afternoon of shopping at the Leesburg Outlet Mall
