

Envisioning Inclusive Excellence in the Midsize Congregation

Presenting Keynote Speaker,
Dr. L. Lee Knefelkamp

A National Scholar and award winning Professor of Psychology and Education in the Program of Social-Organizational Psychology, Teachers College Columbia University. Dr. Knefelkamp has written and presented widely on intellectual and identity development, intercultural and diversity issues, moral and ethical development, and inclusive excellence.

February 6-8, 2009

The 7th National Midsize Congregations
Conference

In Houston, TX

Workshops

INCLUDING:

- ◆ Using the Web to Attract & Welcome Newcomers
- ◆ Inspired Faith, Effective Action: Building Accountable Partnerships
- ◆ An Inclusive Stewardship Program for Your Congregation
- ◆ Keeping Faith: Leading in Lean Times
- ◆ Multicultural Membership—Everyone is Different, We All Need Each Other
- ◆ Truth, Repair, and Reconciliation
- ◆ Making it Work: Nuts & Bolts for Board and Committee Operations
- ◆ From Mid-size to Large: Breaking Through
- ◆ Leading and Managing In Policy Governance

REGISTER NOW

Meet the Dynamic Leadership Challenges of Your Mid-size Congregation

For more information and to REGISTER NOW go to:

<http://www.uua.org/events/midsizecongregations/2009/index.shtml>