

Essay Title: UUA Worship Web
- An Increasingly Useful Resource

Audio Essay: Disc 2 track 9

Congregations needing help with worship resources are invited to check out the UUA's Worship Web. This online resource includes a UU liturgical calendar that includes many of the events that are often celebrated in UU worship throughout the year. It's the place to go to find readings, meditations, prayers and other materials for each of the commonly celebrated events of the church year.

It has Wayside Pulpit quotations, ways of opening and closing a service, an index of authors, and several complete services. It also has a guide to UU worship theory and to planning worship. You can search the website using key words, or you can also search by season, theme, or author. And you are invited to contribute new materials to the site as well.
