A Webinar Conference for Large and Large Mid-Sized Congregations

Join us for a day of programming centered on the diverse and inspirational ways that larger congregations celebrate the spirit of life and community. Workshops will target the specific challenges that congregations of 350 or more members face in governance, outreach, multigenerational ministry and social justice.

Saturday, March 7, 2009
10:00-3:00 pm

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

Governance Workshop led by Rev. Stefan Jonasson, Director for Large Congregations for the UUA

Multigenerational Ministry Workshop led by Rev. Philip Lund, Program Consultant for the Prairie Star District of the UUA

Outreach & Marketing led by Mark Bernstein, Director for Growth for the JPD and Valerie Holton, Marketing Outreach Director for the UUA

HOW IT WORKS:

Four workshops will be presented using webinar and conference calling technology. District staff will be hosting and facilitating each presentation. The software allows up to 23 participants for each workshop. The conference call has no limit. The workshops will be presented from 10-12 and repeated from 1-3. Each participating congregation may reserve up to three seats total for the day. Please submit one registration form for each space requested.

Suggested participants are ministers, religious educators, administrative staff, board presidents, board members, and lay leaders. You can maximize participation in your congregation by gathering in groups of four or more to view the webinar, using a speaker phone or projector.
