

Is it

time yet?

save the date

Tuesday, June 24 & Wednesday, June 25, 2008

Ft. Lauderdale, FL

Unitarian Universalist University is a gathering just before GA of congregational leaders of all kinds. If you want to increase your knowledge and ability to serve your congregation, UU University is for you!

Over 450 people attended in 2007!

at UU University-2008 you will learn strategies for leading theologically diverse congregations and how congregations interact with — and have a positive impact — on a theologically diverse world

begins at noon on Tuesday
concludes at 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday

Nick
Carter

President of Andover Newton Theological School, will give the keynote address. Throughout his career, Carter has focused on institutional transformation—seeking to provide resources that enable individuals and their organizations to be empowered agents of change. He is committed to preparing a new generation of leaders, emphasizing “interfaith border crossing skills”—the ability to communicate with, work with, and care for people who think differently and pray differently.

learn more about UU University at www.uua.org/events/uuuniversity/index.shtml
get testimonials from our graduates | watch for registration and program details