

New Ways to Connect to the UUA Online

- * Join the over 6,400 fans of the Unitarian Universalist Association's Facebook page (<http://tinyurl.com/5wm9gp>).
- * Stay up-to-the-minute on UUA news, by subscribing to the UUA's Twitter feed (<http://twitter.com/uua>). (Please note: If you are a cell phone user, you may be charged for sending or receiving text messages. Please check with your service provider for more information.)
- * Subscribe to our podcast (available in the iTunes store), so you that can enjoy video and audio from the Unitarian Universalist Association on your iPod.
- * Add the UUA.org "Top Stories" RSS feed (<http://feeds.feedburner.com/uua/Lxnn>) to your feed reader.
- * And don't forget about our longstanding online resources, including more than three hundred UUA e-mail lists (<http://lists.uua.org/mailman/listinfo>).

For more information about how your congregation can use new media, please visit our UUA new media how-to resources (<http://www.uua.org/newmedia>).

If you have questions or suggestions about the UUA's new media projects, please contact Shelby Meyerhoff at pw_specialist@uua.org