Global Chalice Lighting: May

French

Alléluia pour le calice qui contient le vin, qui contient nos vies.
Alléluia pour la flamme qui s'élève avec nos prières, avec nos espérances
Rendons grâce à Dieu, au Souffle du divin, au Matriciel source de la vie.
Rendons grâce pour cette Création donnée et reçue.
Merci au rabbi Jésus de Nazareth et à tous les sages de notre Humanité, de toutes les religions, de toutes les sagesse, de toutes les philosophies.
Merci aux hommes et aux femmes de notre Histoire qui ont construit ce monde.
Que nous soyons présents, d'un commun accord, les uns avec les autres, au rendez-vous de notre culte.
Que nous soyons présents, avec écoute mutuelle, les uns pour les autres, au rendez-vous de notre culte.

English

Hallelujah for the chalice which contains the wine, which contains our lives
Hallelujah for the flame which rises with our prayers, with our hopes
Let us give thanks to God, to the divine Breath, to the Matrix that is the source of the life.
Let us give thanks for this Creation given and received.
Thanks to rabbi Jesus of Nazareth and all the wise ones of our Humanity, of all the religions, all wisdoms, all philosophies.
Thanks to the men and women of our History who built this world,
That we are present, by mutual agreement, together at the meeting-point of our worship.
That we are present, listening each other, helping each other, at the meeting-point of our worship.

International Convocation of Unitarian Universalist Women (ICUW)

February 26—March 1, 2009

Houston, TX

And, get ready for the convocation with

*The International Convocation of U*U Women Global Literacy Project:*

*Weaving our U*U Global Village Network*

This exciting new six-session program with internet-based resources is now available for use by congregations, women's groups, and other organizations, as well as by individuals and families. The purpose of the program is to educate ourselves about our U*U global village, the challenges women face globally and what U*Us are doing about improving women's lives.

You can order this program by visiting:

E-Newsletter from the UUA International Resource Office (IRO)

It can be challenging for congregational leaders to keep up-to-date on the latest news and resources for UU international engagement. Let the IRO help.

- If "breaking news" about UU international engagement is important to you.
- If you want to hear success stories from UU congregations that are engaging internationally
- If you're interested in resources that can help your congregation be effective in its international engagement
- If you want to make sure you receive the latest materials for including international elements in your congregation's worship services and RE programs
- If you're interested in the work of the multitude of international U/U organizations, and opportunities for collaboration.

Join the IRO's email list by visiting: <http://shurl.org/i-news>
We'll send an email message to you twice each month with news and practical resources.

All are invited to sign up!

International Resources on www.uua.org/international

Have you visited the international resources office's pages on uua.org recently? In each edition of i-news we'll highlight one or two tools on www.uua.org/international that could be helpful for your congregation. For example:

The Resources Page

Located at <http://shurl.org/internationalresources>, the resources page contains links to online and printable resources that support many aspects of congregational international engagement including terrific materials developed by U/U organizations. Have a look and let us know what you found helpful. Or, if there's something you'd like to see added, we'd like to know that too!
