

UUA Interim DRE Training 2007
August 8-10, 2007
Eliot & Pickett Houses – UUA, Boston, MA

Training begins at 9:00 am Wednesday, August 8 and ends at 3:00 pm on Friday, August 10. Training activities: Professional Religious Educators meet together for discussion and skill-building around common themes of the interim year.

Detailed discussion of the six developmental tasks of the Interim Period of Religious Education.

- Coming to Terms with History
- Evolving a Unique Religious Education Program Identity
- Leadership Changes during the Interim Period
- Renewing Denominational Linkages
- Commitment to the Future Vitality of the RE Program
- Conducting or Overseeing the Customary Responsibilities and Functions of RE Program Administration and Leadership.

Faculty = Rev. Beth Williams, Barbara Stoddard & Rebecca Kelley-Morgan

Limited space is available. Priority is given to those in an Interim DRE position in 2007-2008. Application Deadline–July 25, 2007

Registration Fee: $285 includes Training program, Lunch & Dinner on Wednesday & Thursday, and Lunch on Friday.

Lodging Options at E&P (Breakfast included):

For Wednesday, August 8 & Thursday, August 9: Single Rm: $150 or Shared Rm: $100

For Tuesday, August 7 – Thursday, August 9: Single Rm: $225 or Shared Rm: $150

Restrictions: Participants in this training agree to refrain from accepting a permanent or acting DRE position with an interim congregation and from staying in an interim position for more than two years.

For an application or more information, please contact Beth Williams, RE Credentialing Director, at bethwilliams@uaa.org.