Faith Formation 2020

Lots of UU ministers, religious educators, and UUA staff have been showing up lately at the “Vision & Practice of 21st Century Faith Formation” trainings offered by John Roberto of Lifelong Faith Formation and Vibrant Faith Ministries. A recent training in Hartford CT was sold out, with something like one-third of the attendees representing UUism. The basic idea of the training is to equip religious professionals to provide vibrant faith development for all ages that responds proactively to the driving forces – both secular and religious – that impact the future health of congregations.

Here are some essential links:

- An overview of driving forces affecting faith formation today;
- An overview of the four scenarios of the future of faith formation;
- Complete information on attending a workshop offered around the country;
