

The Commission on Appraisal reviews any function or activity of the UUA which, in its judgment, warrants independent study. The Commission reports its findings to the General Assembly at least once every four years. The work is vigorous and year-round, involving much research, writing, consulting, and hearings. It may operate at times like a mini-think tank in its broad consideration of issues. The Commission meets four times per year for four-day meetings. This Commission requires people with good conceptual and analytical skills.

UUA Nominating Committee Application Form

Imagine how you could serve your Association!

The Nominating Committee is seeking candidates who offer a balance of skills, life experiences, cultural competencies, abilities, and geographic representation for the Committees, Commissions, and Positions elected by the General Assembly.

Consistent with the resolutions of our General Assembly, we are intentional about becoming an anti-racist, anti-oppressive, and multicultural institution, and we want our committees, commissions and positions to embody that intention.

If you are interested in hearing more, come to the Nominating Committee Workshop and Reception at General Assembly, 2008. See your General Assembly Schedule for details.
