

FOR DIRECTORS OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Do you have a children's version of the Principles?

Skinner House Books invites you to submit original wording of the seven Principles for children. The selected version will be published as a hardcover illustrated book, part of the picture book series that includes Unitarian Universalism Is a Really Long Name, Meet Jesus, A Child's Book of Blessings and Prayers, and Earth Day (coming April 2009).

Please send your submission with a cover letter that includes information on how to contact you, your affiliation with Unitarian Universalism, and an explanation of the rationale behind your wording of the Principles for children. If your version is already published or in use within a congregation, please give details.
