

Unitarian Universalist Funding Program

Inspired by the richness and diversity of our liberal religious tradition, our mission is to promote the influence of Unitarian Universalist principles through grantmaking.

Do you have a project or program that wants financial support? The U.U. Funding Program may be a source of funding to support your work. We make grants of $1,000 to $20,000 to qualifying UU organizations, and up to $15,000 to non- UU groups.

Our Funds have unique missions and guidelines. Which Fund is best for you?

The Fund for Unitarian Universalism makes grants to Unitarian Universalist organizations for projects that strengthen Unitarian Universalist institutional community life and nurture and celebrate our liberal religious heritage. Priority is given to innovative, challenging or experimental programs that may have wide denominational impact.

Maximum grant: $20,000. Application deadlines: March 15 and September 15.

The Fund for International Unitarian Universalism makes grants to Unitarian/Universalist organizations for programs that strengthen and promote U/U ideals and values and nurture and celebrate our free faith beyond North America. Priority is given to innovative, challenging programs and projects that address needs not met by institutional structures.

Maximum grant: $20,000. Application deadline: March 15 ONLY.

The Fund For Unitarian Universalist Social Responsibility provides grants to Unitarian Universalist organizations that increase the direct involvement of Unitarian Universalists in service, advocacy and community organizing to create justice in the world, link UUs with their community and foster a generosity of spirit and action in UU communities.

Maximum grant: $20,000. Application deadlines: March 15 and September 15.

Congregation Based Community Organizing (CBCO) Matching grants are available to congregations joining an interfaith organizing network such as Gamaliel, IAF, PICO or DART, for membership (March 15 and September 15 deadline) and training (apply anytime).
