CONVO

November 11-16, 2009, Ottawa, Ontario

Dear beloved congregation;

Every seven years Unitarian Universalist Ministers gather together for CONVO – a week of exceptional professional development and enrichment activities. Ministers on the Convo Team have been working on the program for more than three years, to make sure that your minister experiences the most up-to-date, training in worship, in leadership, and in communicating the UU message to the world.

Will you support them? We are asking each congregation to take an advertisement in our program. (Rates below) Your financial support will help us make “continuing education” for your minister, a great success. Who knows, a future minister of your congregation might read your add and become curious about your congregation.

We will be producing a CONVO program that will become a souvenir of the event when people go home. An ad in the Convocation 09 program can:

- Invite the ministers to come to your congregation for sabbaticals and to replace ministers out of commission because of illness.
- Let ministers know who you are.
- Tell your minister how much you appreciate what they do
- Honour excellence in ministry
- Post job ads for ministerial opportunities
- Offer ministers opportunities for collaboration or service
- Celebrate a minister’s lifetime of service
- Advertise Books or CD’s, which you would like to promote
